

2009 ECA & ECIA Victorian State Conference

“Engaging Everybody - Active and successful participation in early childhood”

Friday 16 October 2009

Victory Room, Gate 9, Etihad Stadium, Docklands

08.30 – 09.15am	Registration
09.30 – 09.40am	Introduction : Susana Gavidia-Payne & Marlene Fox (ECIA & ECA Victoria Presidents)
09.40 – 09.45am	Welcome to Country
09.45 – 10.00am	Opening Address: The Hon Maxine Morand, Minister for Children and Early Childhood Development
10.00 – 11.00am	Keynote Address: Pam Winter & Gerry Mulhearn The new 3 RRRs! What counts in early learning?
11.00– 11.30am	Morning Tea (including poster presentations and displays)
11.30 – 12.30pm	Workshop: Pam Winter & Gerry Mulhearn Using adult and child observation scales to support early learning
12.30 – 1.15pm	Lunch (including poster presentations and displays)
1.15pm – 2.00pm	Keynote Address: Lillian Holt Engaging the other: Engaging ourselves
2.00 – 2.40pm	National President’s Address: John Forster & Margaret Young (ECIA & ECA National Presidents) Challenges to Inclusion
2.40 – 3.00pm	Afternoon Tea
3.00 – 3.20pm	Sophie Carasso (Association for Children with a Disability) Parent Perspective	Anne Slater (Yooralla) Square peg in a round hole” Strengthening the inclusive practices of Early Childhood services through mentoring and professional development.	Marge Arnup (DEECD) Positive Transitions into Childcare, Kindergarten and School – A Gippsland Story.
3.20 – 3.40pm	Di Chandler (Elwyn Morey Centre) Strategies which promote inclusion.	Frank Giggins (City of Greater Geelong) Engaging Communities – Facilitating positive outcomes using the Barwon Early Years Transition Resource Kit.	Sandra Prouse (FKA Children’s Services) Inclusion from the CALD perspective: Factors that contribute to good practice.
3.40 – 4.00pm	Val Spence (EPIC) Early Childhood Intervention: How long is a piece of string.	Janet Torode (Specialist Children’s Services) Joining the dots – Transition pathways for children with special needs in Barwon.	Millie Olcay (Australian Catholic University) Honouring children and young people’s active participation in education: exploring experiences of ‘inclusion’ and ‘disability’ in mainstream early childhood and primary school settings.’
4.00pm	Close		